

win over the irrational evil enemies and errors of our age. Remember we won't do the naming but we will pick the winner. Let's get to work and do it. Shall we? Let's find the new faith, the new compassion, the new understanding, and yes, the new existential doubt, too, that will send us on and give us the strength and the courage to do what needs to be done. Let's commit ourselves, deeply and completely, not to neurotic security but to the survival of man on this earth.

African Question Mark

Don't know why I,
 Black,
 Must still stand with my back
 To the last frontier of fear
 In my own land.

Don't know why I now
 Must turn into a
 Mau Mau
 And lift my hand
 Against my fellow man
 To live on my own land.

But it is so —
 And being so,
 All I know:
For you and me
There's woe.
